AVV. ENRICO BARBARESCO

Attorneys at Law Raffaele Fenso, Marco Mannino and Enrico Barbaresco form an established professional structure capable of providing legal services in specific areas of Law.

The Firm has office in Milan and has been operating in close collaboration and constant sharing of knowledge with other selected experts in the same field.

PRACTICE AREAS

The Firm practices commercial and corporate law and provides legal assistance in administrative sanction proceedings under the Consolidated Law on Finance (T.U.F.) before the Supervisory Authorities, as well as in any related judicial proceedings challenging such sanctions.

The firm focuses on administrative Law, with particular expertise in the fields of public procurement for public works, the public supply of goods and services, expropriation Law, urban planning and construction Law, as well as energy Law, anti-trust Law and concessions relating to state-owned property.

The firm also handles matters relating to civil liability, with particular reference to road accidents, workplace injuries, personal injury claims, and medical malpractice, providing comprehensive legal assistance both in the pre-litigation phase and in contentious proceedings, with a view to securing full and effective compensation for the damages suffered.

The firm advises and represents clients in matters of family law, providing legal assistance in separation and divorce proceedings, whether by mutual consent or through judicial proceedings; in the negotiation and regulation of property and financial arrangements between spouses and cohabiting partners; in matters concerning child custody and maintenance; and in the protection of minors and vulnerable persons.

In addition, Raffaele Fenso, Marco Mannino and Enrico Barbaresco provide litigation services in support of the above mentioned law matters, both individually and jointly, defending and representing their clients at the Italian Courts of Justice and Independent Agencies.
